

What's the difference between ALL and EVERY?

ALL (OF) = the whole or complete group

EVERY = each item / object in the group

Note that ALL is used with plural nouns while EVERY is used with singular nouns.

It is not possible to use a Determiner such as the, a/an, this / that, yours, his, etc. with EVERY.

Compare the following:

I watched all the episodes in the 'Friends' series.

I watched all (of) the film last night.

All my friends love Malta.

I watched every episode in the 'Friends' series.

I watched every minute of the film last night.

Every one of my friends loves Malta.

Note you cannot say:

~~I watched every the episode in the 'Friends' series.~~

~~Every my friend loves Malta.~~

Complete the exercise below using ALL or EVERY:

1. Have you read _____ the newspaper?
2. I cry _____ time I watch the film.
